INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges:

COUNT 1: From on or about February 18, 2020, to and including April 12, 2022, in the City and County of Honolulu, State of Hawai‘i, Tobi Solidum, Sylvia Luke, Ryan Yamane, and/or Ford Fuchigami, with the intent to promote or facilitate the commission of the crime Bribery, did agree with one or more persons that one or more of them would engage in the conduct and/or would cause the result specified by the definition of the offense of Bribery, thereby committing the offense of Conspiracy to Commit Bribery in violation of Sections 705-520 and 710-1040(1)(a) of the Hawai‘i Revised Statutes.

Under Section 710-1040(1)(a) of the Hawai‘i Revised Statutes, a person commits the offense of Bribery if the person confers, or offers or agrees to confer, directly or indirectly, any pecuniary benefit upon a public servant with the intent to influence the public servant's vote, opinion, judgment, exercise of discretion, or other action in the public servant's official capacity.

It was part of the conspiracy that Tobi Solidum would make an agreement with Sylvia Luke, Ryan Yamane, and/or Ford Fuchigami in which Tobi Solidum would confer, offer, or agree to confer, directly or indirectly, a pecuniary benefit upon Sylvia Luke, Ryan Yamane, and/or Ford Fuchigami, who were public servants, with the intent to influence Sylvia Luke’s, Ryan Yamane’s, and/or Ford Fuchigami’s vote, exercise of discretion, or other action in their official capacities.

In furtherance of the conspiracy and to effect the objects thereof, the following overt acts, among others, were committed on or about February 18, 2020, to and including April 12, 2022, in the City and County of Honolulu, State of Hawai‘i:

OVERT ACTS RELATING TO SOLIDUM AND LUKE

1. As of January 18, 2022, Sylvia Luke (“Luke”) and Tobi Solidum (“Solidum”) had agreed to meet on January 20, 2022 at 5:30 p.m. at Morton’s The Steakhouse at Ala Moana Shopping Center (“Morton’s”). At the time, Luke was an elected Representative in the Hawai‘i State Legislature and the Chair of the House of Representatives (“House”) Committee on Finance. She had announced that she was running for Lieutenant Governor of the State of Hawai‘i. Solidum, meanwhile, had developed lucrative financial interests related to the State of Hawai‘i Department of Health’s (“DOH”) contract with the National Kidney Foundation of Hawai‘i to provide community testing for COVID-19 (“COVID”). The purpose of the January 20, 2022 meeting was for Solidum to confer, offer, or agree to confer campaign contributions to Luke with the intent to influence Luke’s vote, exercise of discretion, or other action in her official capacity as an elected Representative in the Hawai‘i State Legislature.
2. On January 18, 2022 at about noon, Solidum met with Ty Cullen (“Cullen”) at the Elks Lodge in Waikiki (“Elks Club”). At the time, Cullen was an elected Representative in the Hawai‘i State Legislature and the Vice Chair of the House Committee on Finance. Solidum told Cullen that the COVID pandemic was still an issue and that he had recently spoken with DOH Deputy Director Cathy Ross (“Ross”). Solidum told Cullen that DOH was running out of money for COVID testing because DOH never got money from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (“FEMA”). Solidum said that DOH was going to “cut us off by February.” Solidum brought up the prospect of using State of Hawai‘i resiliency funds to continue to fund COVID community testing sites. Solidum said that it cost $54,000,000 to maintain 25 COVID community testing sites for one year and that did not include the cost of COVID tests and labor. Solidum said that he spoke to Luke about using a different formula to fund community testing and that they were supposed to meet. Solidum asked Cullen if he wanted to join Solidum and Luke for dinner and Cullen agreed. Solidum said that DOH should make a request to “you guys” or to the Governor for an emergency appropriation. Solidum said that it took a long time to build up community testing sites and that he was out “like $11,000,000.” Solidum confirmed that Cullen would join Solidum, Luke, and Kristen Pae (“Pae”) at Morton’s on January 20, 2022 at 5:30 p.m. for dinner. Solidum told Cullen that Luke was “Running for LG now. All I gotta do is give her more money.”

3. On January 18, 2022 at about 2:55 p.m., Solidum texted Ross to set up a phone call between them. Ross asked Solidum if it was something they could discuss the next day. Solidum told Ross, “Ok I’ll be meeting with Sylvia on Thursday to request for additional funds to sustain statewide testing infrastructure[.]” Ross asked, “For post march 31st?” Solidum said, “Yes[.] We may change testing model to bill insurance or Feds but maintain statewide infrastructure[.]” Ross asked, “Does the insurance model work?” Solidum replied, “Just toying with it now[.] I think it could as long as we can have infrastructure funding to maintain target sites[.]”

4. On January 19, 2022, in preparation for his meeting with Luke, Solidum arranged to meet Ross at the Elks Club on January 20, 2022 to discuss state funding for community testing for COVID.
5. On January 20, 2022 at 1:41 p.m., Solidum texted Pae and instructed her to write a $5,000 check to Friends of Sylvia Luke and to bring the check to Morton’s.
6. On January 20, 2022 at about 4:00 p.m., in preparation for his meeting with Luke, Solidum met with Ross at the Elks Club to discuss state funding for community testing for COVID.
7. On January 20, 2022 at about 5:30 p.m., Luke, Solidum, Cullen, and Pae met in a private dining area at Morton’s. After Luke arrived, Solidum told her that Pae had a couple of checks to give her. Luke said, “Oh, thank you.” Pae placed an envelope on the table. Luke picked up the envelope and put it in her handbag. That envelope contained a $5,000 check from Solidum and a $5,000 check from Pae, both written out to Friends of Sylvia Luke. Solidum told Luke, “By next week we’ll have 35-so it will be halfway to our 70.” Luke responded, “Oh wow” and “That’s terrific.” Solidum said, “So I’ll get you your 70 but just gotta get to that point okay? It’s our fundraiser.” Luke said, “That’s like the last thing you should be . . .” Solidum said, “No, what you talking about? That was what we committed so we gonna follow through that commitment.”

8. Later during the meeting on January 20, 2022, Solidum and Luke discussed the prospect of funding community testing for COVID.

Solidum: So on our side, the testing side—we're anticipating that DOH will run out of money by March.

Luke: Yeah, everybody is running out of money by March.

Solidum: So if they run out of money—

Luke: M-hmm.

Solidum: --by March uhm DOCD—

Luke: Yeah.

Solidum: --has funds.

Luke: M-hmm.

Solidum: That they can go ahead and release—

Luke: Yeah.

Solidum: --uhm and DOCD isn't giving the money to Cathy or Libby.

Luke: Yeah, so...

Solidum: Is there any way you can push DOCD to release those funds?

Luke: So, so they still have money and they still have a lot of CARES and ARPA money—

Solidum: So—

Luke: —that they have not spent.

Solidum: —Cathy calculated about 15 or 16 million.

Luke: M-hmm.

Solidum: Right? And the ask—cause I just met with Cathy before I even came here. The ask is—

Luke: Why would they not release it? I mean you still need uh—

Solidum: That's the boss right? But I was wondering, how come—this is an agency of the department—

Luke: Uh-huh. Yeah, yeah.

Solidum: —you would think the director or the deputy director could tell the [Laughs] the people in DOCD Sarah Kemble them. There's a need to go ahead—

Luke: What? That's so funny, so Sarah Kemble [Laughing] is not releasing? [Laughing]

Solidum: So Sarah Kemble isn't releasing the money. So we need the 15 to 16 million.

Luke: Yeah [unintelligible].

Solidum: To go beyond March.

Cullen: M-hmm.

Solidum: Right? Uh so that would help a lot, right? Now because we are the state testing partner, right? And I guess we do over half the tests across the state. We have to look at resilience or is there a need for resilience right to maintain infrastructure across the state. So as you know Sylvia, when we started this thing—we had to front between 6 and 7 million dollars right before we even said hello to anybody from—from the state. So anybody who wants to get into this game—to restart the machine right—gonna have to do the same thing that we did and try to go and get-get this infrastructure thing set up. Do you think it's necessary to carry the infrastructure on for at least end of the year or...

Luke: Yeah.

Solidum: [Unintelligible] to go beyond because if there, if there's a need then we have to look resi-resiliency monies. From what I understand, Luke Meyers through HIEMA...

Luke: Yeah.

Cullen: Luke Meyers.

Solidum: Has the capability of drawing down federal funds three to one uh based on whatever needs there are for the state. So if it's open for discussion, we'd at least like to see what the possibility is to try to draw down those funds.

[Pause]

Luke: Yeah, I'll follow up.

Solidum: Okay—

Luke: Cause they—they're supposed to have money. And you know uhm I went to two functions where I had to do rapid test before I went in—

Solidum: Uh-huh.

Luke: --the meeting and that's really good because I think that's how's it's gonna be now.

Solidum: Exactly.

9. During the meeting on January 20, 2022, Solidum discussed obtaining union support for Luke and providing Luke with additional campaign contributions. Towards the end of the meeting, Solidum told Luke, "We'll follow through the 70,000 at least." Solidum told Luke, ". . . we'll give you other checks . . . and like I said, we'll fulfill our commitment . . ." Luke said, "Yeah, no thank you." Solidum responded, "You're welcome Lieutenant Governor. [Laughs] And chair Cullen of whatever committee you want to be."
10. On January 21, 2022, Luke gave Solidum's and Pae's $5,000 campaign contribution checks to a Friends of Sylvia Luke volunteer to be deposited. On January 21, 2022, Solidum's and Pae's $5,000 campaign contribution checks were deposited into Friends of Sylvia Luke's bank account.
11. On January 21, 2022, Luke instructed Linda Ichiyama ("Ichiyama"), an elected Representative in the Hawai'i State Legislature and the Chair of the House Committee on Pandemic and Disaster Preparedness, to arrange a meeting with government officials to discuss emergency appropriations to DOH.

16. On March 30, 2022, Luke instructed Ichiyama to submit an agreement form for H.B. No. 2392 H.D. 1 S.D. 1 to the Speaker of the House.
17. On April 4, 2022, Luke instructed Ichiyama that the House could not agree to H.B. No. 2392 H.D. 1 S.D. 1 because the Governor's Message, a procedural mechanism, was wrong and needed to be corrected.
18. On April 12, 2022, Luke voted to pass H.B. No. 2392 H.D. 1 S.D. 1. The House passed H.B. No. 2392 H.D. 1 S.D. 1.

Your Committee finds that the SARS-CoV-2 virus, which causes the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), continues to evolve with time, manifesting new variant strains. Each new variant poses a potential threat of increased transmissibility, increased severity, or decreased ability of available vaccines and therapeutic agents to effectively combat the virus. Your Committee believes that high vaccination coverage throughout the State is the best available tool to mitigate any impact new variants may cause. However, your Committee notes that in order to achieve this, the Department of Health requires logistical support for its continued efforts to prevent the spread of COVID-19. This measure is intended to continue the Department of Health's efforts at addressing the COVID-19 pandemic by providing funds to ensure the safety of Hawaii's residents.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Standing in strong support. Mr. Speaker, the state faced a huge health crisis two years ago and we are continuing to address that. Mr. Speaker, the measure before you is an emergency appropriation. I would like to take this opportunity to thank my Co-Chairs in PDP and the Finance Chair working together. Mr. Speaker, we became aware of the concerns about addressing the needs of the people of Hawai'i, especially our keiki and our kūpuna. At that point, we worked with BNF and the Department of Health to make sure that one, we took care of the services for the people of Hawai'i. That required money to be addressed and to continue the services to address this pandemic.

Mr. Speaker, the measure before you has $171 million in emergency funds. I do want the members to know that the goal is to use state money for this measure now. However, we are going to be seeking FEMA reimbursement for its totality. Mr. Speaker, I do have a brief statement from our director of health. "The Department of Health is grateful to Speaker Saiki; Chairs Ichiyama, Yamane, and Luke for the collaboration and assistance in introducing and shepherding Representative Yamane's H.B. 2392 through the legislative process. This bill will enable the Department of Health to recoup funds expended for COVID-19 actions that resulted in Hawai'i keiki and kūpuna experiencing the lowest case rate and the second lowest mortality rate in the United States. Respectfully, Director Dr. Elizabeth Char." So, Mr. Speaker, thank you for the leadership getting this measure forward, as well as the collaboration with this administration. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

38. On April 12, 2022, Yamane voted to pass H.B. No. 2392 H.D. 1 S.D. 1. The House passed H.B. No. 2392 H.D. 1 S.D. 1.
